

Regarding transactions with Chrysler LLC

Tokyo, May 1, 2009 — Takata Corporation, one of the world's leading global suppliers of advanced automotive safety systems and products, today announced that because Chrysler LLC ("Chrysler"), a transaction partner of its group companies, on April 30, 2009 filed for bankruptcy under Chapter 11 of the U.S. bankruptcy code, the possibility has arisen that account receivables relating to Chrysler will either be delayed in recovery or become non-recoverable.

Takata intends to stay closely informed with regard to developments in Chrysler's recovery plan and the U.S. government's Auto Supplier Support Program, and will make every effort to secure payment for the receivables concerned.

Any revisions to Takata's consolidated financial forecasts will be announced promptly as necessary.
